June 1 Family Day at Chena Lakes Recreation Area

← Agenda

1st Day Camp Planning Meeting at Roundtable, February 7, 2019 →

Greeting: Tammy Illguth (Day Camp Director—907-322-5901)

Same Location as last year. Other site considered was UAF rifle range. Road issues

Packets are available. Should be online soon.

1. Please register as a pack. Bring application, health forms, YPT certificates and money in together
No two sided copies
2. Health Forms online and can be filled out online and printed
3. We are not interested in immunizations. Do not lie on form. Cross out if you want. This tells the health officer important information about your child
4. Print legibly- It's important was can read the information
5. Late applications available, again bring all information and forms at one time.
6. No FOS discounts, No Deposits, this ends issues, paperwork, money and confusion at office.
7. Camp Price is the same $75. This allows for an increase in the shirt prices.
8. No Refunds available after May 3, 2019
9. No Shirts guaranteed after March 29, 2019 as orders will be going in right away
2 free shirts per pack for leaders. Additional shirts $15. Staff get a free shirt (thank you)
10. Contact person for pack should have copies of registration information in case we need to call them for further clarification

Youth Protection Training—The Safety of the children is very important to us

1. Helps all leaders and volunteers know the rules and can help watch for the children.
2. Available online and on disk at the local office. YPT classes can be set up for your group
3. Keep copy of certificate for yourself and hand one copy in.
