Council President

Bob Groseclose

Friends and colleagues, every year the Midnight Sun Council hosts a Sporting Clays Event in August. This fundraising event benefits the local Boy Scouting program which focus on youth character development, moral and ethical decision making, team building, leadership, adventure, and fun in the outdoors.

Council Commissioner

Matt Cooper

Council Treasurer

Kal Kennedy

Here is the program - Teams of five will rotate through 4 rounds of clays and compete as a team for highest hits. We also plan to hold the annual Annie Oakley individual competition right after a lunch of hamburgers and hotdogs (free for shooters-$10 for spectators).

Immediate Past President

Matt Cooper

Continental breakfast, water and coffee provided while supplies last. Raffle prizes like Shotguns, Alaska Railroad Tickets, Fishing trips and more will be raffled (MUST be present to win).

Vice Presidents

This is a beneficial venue for us to serve the youth of interior Alaska and teach the values and foundation that the scouting programs provide. To do that, every event, program, and training that happens is run by donations and gifts from outside our community and from within our community from organizations and individuals that see the value in our program. We ask that you consider becoming one of our sponsors by filling out the included sponsorship form. We ask that the team sign up form be filled out with shooters' names so that we can expedite sign process at the event.

Fund Development

Finance
